

MINI PLASMA BALL

The Mini Plasma Ball has a lightning display just like larger models! Touch the ball and the lightning is concentrated on your fingers. The lightning will dance to the beat of music or respond to your voice. Great for party table decorations. Battery operation provides hours of fun with no electrical cords needed. Requires 4 x AA batteries (not included) or can be used with a 6V DC adapter (sold separately).

- Awesome lightning display
- Sound reactive setting
- A great party decoration
